News For the Ladies

When a lady wants a real pretty piece of furniture she knows by experience that we will give her better value than any other dealer, and she knows we advertise only new goods. We seldom mention anything about bargains, because our stock is so excellent and the prices so cheap that we could hardly make them cheaper.

If at any time we should hint that anything we offer is something extraordinary in the way of a bargain you may depend on

Here is something handsome and the price is as low as such an elegant piece of furniture can be sold. It consists of a golden
